

TEAM MISSION STATEMENT

The Presbytery of Greater Atlanta's Disaster Response and Emergency Preparedness (DREP) Team enables congregations to be mission partners with the Presbytery of Greater Atlanta and the entire Presbyterian Church, (USA) to witness to the healing love of Christ through caring for communities adversely affected by crises and catastrophic events through preparedness, awareness, education, and advocacy in order to provide help, hope, and healing.

The Presbytery of Greater Atlanta, Presbyterian Church, USA, consists of over 100 congregations and over 46,000 members spanning 20 counties including rural, urban, and suburban areas of Georgia.

Offers of assistance from member churches:

- Financial & Resource Assistance
- Clean-up work teams
- Food Collection
- Household Collection
- Building Repair
- Assistance in coordinating the needs of immigrant communities
- Pastoral Care
- Calvin Center opportunities (response meetings, workshops, conferences, temporary housing) -- All Calvin Center opportunities are coordinated by the Associate Executive Presbyter for Camp and Conference Ministries, Paul Fogg. Please contact him at 770-946-4276 ext. 23, paulfogg@calvincenter.org

The Calvin Center is a Camp & Conference Center of the Presbytery of Greater Atlanta, Presbyterian Church (USA)

Offers of assistance from member churches are being coordinated through the Disaster Assistance and Response line of the Presbytery of Greater Atlanta at 404-898-0711 ext. 160, or Cassandra Morrow, Associate Executive Presbyter at 404-898-0711 ext. 122, cmorrow@presbyteryofgreateratl.org

The Presbytery of Greater Atlanta is located at 1024 Ponce de Leon Ave., Atlanta, GA, 30306.

No direct assistance will be available on-site. Assistance will be directed to local agencies active in disaster response and long-term recovery efforts.